LENT WITH THE CHOSEN—Because some people have been tested positive for covid, we deciding postpone the chosen this week

THE HOLY FATHER WILL CONSECRATE RUSSIA AND UKRAINE TO THE IMMACULATE HEART OF MARY this coming Friday 25th – the Solemnity of the Annunciation. The Standing Committee of the Bishops' Conference has asked that Bishops make the Act of Consecration in their Cathedral Churches at some point during the day, to unite our church in these countries with the Holy Father's act. Bp Peter will be at the Cathedral at 4 o'clock on Friday to pray the Dolours Rosary and the Prayer of Consecration in unity with the Holy Father. You will be most welcome to join Bp Peter there. This will also be live-streamed in order that the greatest number of the faithful can join in prayer albeit remotely.

THE 24 HOURS FOR THE LORD is an annual worldwide Lenten initiative for Catholics to receive the mercy of God through Eucharistic Adoration and the Sacrament of Reconciliation. Pope Francis invites the entire Church to "celebrate the Sacrament of Reconciliation in the context of Eucharistic adoration".

In our deanery are designated 2 churches: Welshpool - Friday 25 March between 1 pm and 4 pm, Cathedral - Saturday 26 March between 9 am and 12 noon.
